2. New contributions of the thesis

2.1. The first contribution is providing systematically document on Quang Nam Buddhism of many types on the basis of analyzing, comparing and verifying scientifically.

2.2. The most basic contribution of the thesis is helping readers follow the process of transmission, mobilization and development, with many-face expressions of Quang Nam Buddhism in 3 periods. Here, apart from rebuilding the panorama of Buddhism, we also try to explain, verify and objectively evaluate many expressions and problems of the object; simultaneously, adjust and complement the mistakes and shortcomings which previous research works have faced with.

2.3. The thesis has pointed out the general and private characteristics of Quang Nam Buddhism, through which confirms that on one hand, Quang Nam Buddhism is a component of Vietnamese Buddhism, but on the other hand, in its turn, Quang Nam Buddhism has its own characteristics and relative independence in an overall circumstance of national Buddhism due to geographical and social historical condition. Besides, the thesis also confirms the active aspects of Quang Nam Buddhism by stating and analyzing its role in social life.

2.4. From above academic contributions, the result of thesis will set the basis for the behavior towards local Buddhism presently and in the future of administrative organizations, groups, religion in Quang Nam and Đà Nẵng, such as proposing the policy and administrative mode, development orientation, Buddhist activity, preserving and enhancing the cultural values of Buddhism. This is the practical value of the thesis.
