CAMPUS Asia-AIMS

PKNU-YES(Youth Exchange with Southeast Asia) Program

1. About AIMS Program

The AIMS Program is a collaborative and multilateral student exchange program that involves both governments and higher education institutions (HEIs) to enhance student mobility in Southeast Asia and beyond. PKNU-AIMS Program offers a unique opportunity to experience a new learning environment while creating your own international network as an exchange student at one of Busan's most prestigious universities!

2. Associated Faculty Information

• Division of International and Area Studies

The Division of International and Area Studies was established with the purpose of fostering a multidisciplinary research approach to Europe, China, and North America. These regions are key players and leaders of today's global society. Our aim is to train future professionals with the skills and knowledge necessary to understand developments in these three geographical areas.

We focus on giving students both practical language skills and in-depth knowledge about the region of their choosing. Our research and lectures emphasize international politics, trade and economics, as well as the major cultural, social and environmental issues facing each region.

• Major of International and Area Studies

- Major of International Development Cooperation

Through understanding and practical training for international development cooperation, this major provides the expertise on Sustainable Development Plan of the world and politics, economy, society, culture, history of major cooperating countries and each region of the world. It is to train experts on international cooperation that have the comprehensive knowledge and practical skills with English and local language capability of key partner countries and comprehensive knowledge about developing countries in Southeast Asia, Latin America and Africa, etc.

- Major of Global Studies

Students can gain expertise in politics, economy, society, culture and history of Europe and in North America as well as in regional integration centered on the European Union and the United States (NAFTA, TPP, etc.). It is to train local experts that have the comprehensive knowledge and practical skills on developed countries represented by Europe and North America.
